MIB - PRESS AND REGISTRATION OF PERIODICALS RULES, 2024

Applicability:

The PRP Rules, 2024, govern the registration of all periodicals published in India, including newspapers, magazines, journals, and other publications with periodicity

Press Registration Goes Digital: MIB Notifies New Rules!

The Ministry of Information and Broadcasting (MIB) has streamlined the process of registering periodicals in India with the notification of the Press and Registration of Periodicals (PRP) Rules, 2024. This newsletter provides a comprehensive overview of these new regulations.

Key Highlights of the PRP Rules, 2024:

- Online Registration: The process of registering periodicals is now entirely online through the Press Sewa Portal. This eliminates the need for physical submissions.
- Responsibilities of Printers and Publishers: The rules outline specific responsibilities for both printers and publishers of periodicals. Printers must intimate the Press Registrar General (PRGI) within 30 days of starting operations. Similarly, publishers must register with the PRGI through the Press Sewa Portal.
- Discontinuation of Periodicals: In case of publication closure, publishers are required to submit an online intimation to the PRGI within six months of discontinuing the periodical.

Benefits of the New Rules:

- Transparency and Efficiency: The online system promotes transparency and streamlines the registration process.
- Faster Turnaround: Online registration is expected to expedite the registration process for publishers.
- Convenience for Stakeholders: Both printers and publishers can fulfill their obligations conveniently through the online portal.
